

Regarding limitation of broadcast ownership. Please do not dilute this rule any further than it already has been. It is crucially important to a free media to have a broader selection of broadcasters than we have currently. To narrow the playing field further is the antithesis of freedom and of the capitalist marketplace. Coddling the few hurts the many. We need more players, not less. Thank you.